

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

Time for Change

By Pat Lynn

After two years as your newsletter editor, I'm stepping down to take some time off from everything that involves writing and deadlines.

Change can be good! This change for me opens up an opportunity for another member to take over as editor and provide some new ideas and inspiration. So, if your creative side is itching for a new outlet that being editor of the newsletter could provide, contact a member of the NABA board.

Thanks to all of you who have contributed pictures and interesting articles over the last two years. That truly is what allows this newsletter to live.
