

Monarch Guardian

Your Names

are hereby recognized as 2023 Monarch Guardians for helping to conserve and protect monarch butterfly populations by insuring the safety of monarch chrysalides and releasing the butterflies into the wild, raised from eggs or caterpillars rescued from the wild and carefully nurtured – to help maintain future generations of this magnificent species.

What else did you see on milkweed?

Large Milkweed Bug
Oncopeltus fasciatus

Small Milkweed Bug
Lygaeus kalmii

Red Milkweed Beetle
Tetraopes Tetrophthalmus

Swamp Milkweed Beetle
Labidomera clivicollis

Milkweed Tussock Moth
Euchaetes egle

Milkweed Aphids
Aphis nerii

Green Lacewing eggs
Chrysoperia rufilabris

May we never take for granted the wonder of a butterfly life and the privilege of sharing it.
Massachusetts Butterfly Club · Certificate No. 2